HOW TO SELECT AN OFFICE for LIFE ASSURANCE.

Extract from Board of Trade's Report, July 2, 1874.

"Taking Insurance business as it exists in this country, the Public cannot be misled if, when seeking an Office in which to effect an Insurance, they select one which transacts its business at a small percentage of working cost, and does not anticipate its profits."

THESE TESTS ARE ENTIRELY FULFILLED BY THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY,

the Report itself showing that of all the English Provincial Offices and all the Scotch Offices, the Royal's Ratio of Expenses to its Premium Income is the Lowest, and the Company have never anticipated a Single Shilling of Profit.

Extract from "The Times" of July 24, 1874.

"On the whole, it would be safe for the Father of a Family, contemplating the Insurance of his Life, to select one of the Offices with a Large Life Fund, a Small Expenditure on Management, and a Rate of Interest ranging from 4·2 to 4·5 per cent."

"THE ROYAL"

ENTIRELY MEETS THE WHOLE OF THESE REQUIREMENTS.

Its Life Fund is close upon Two Millions Sterling; its Expenses are Lower than those of any other English Provincial Office, and of any Scotch Office; and its rate of Interest is 4·4 per cent.

LIFE FUNDS	£1,761,523
GENERAL RESERVE	£594,434
PAID-UP CAPITAL	£289,545

"We have examined and counted every Security, and have found all correct and in perfect order, and that the present aggregate market value is in excess of the amounts in the Balance-sheet."—From Auditors' Report, July 17, 1874.

"As evidence of the care exercised in the Investment of the Life Funds, it may be mentioned that they have never been reduced a single penny by bad or doubtful securities."—From Chairman's Speech at Annual Meeting, August 7, 1874.

EPPS'S COCOA.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast-tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

MOODY AND SANKEY.

AMERICAN ORGANS in every variety of CRAMER'S Manufacture and on CRAMER'S
Three Years System.

Prices from 15 Guineas, or £1 11s. 6d. a Quarter.

CRAMER and Co. by no means wish it to be understood, as in some quarters it would seem to have been, that their AMERICAN ORGANS are used by Messrs. Moody and Sankey at their interesting meetings.

CRAMER'S instruments are much more solid in manufacture, and infinitely superior in quality of tone, and are certainly not open to the objection made by perhaps the most influential literary and musical journal to the imported organs:—

"Judge! from the artistic point of view, the instrument is no more agreeable to the ear than is the stentorian power displayed by the singer."

Moreover, while CRAMER'S AMERICAN ORGANS are more satisfactorily made, and better finished in all respects, they are sold at prices varying from 15 to 25 per cent. below those of all imported instruments.

These, and all other instruments of CRAMER'S manufacture, can be had on the three years system, which, originated by CRAMER'S, has been partially adopted by other firms, but is carried out on a thoroughly large and liberal scale only by themselves.

AURORA: A Volume of Verse.

Price 5s.

"Illustrated with considerable power. Much of the imagery employed is equally bold and striking, and the music of some of the lines is admirably fitted to the sense."—Athenaeum.

"A revelation of refined fancy, never disappointing after the keynote of the volume has been mastered."—Manchester Guardian.

"Intellectual, energetic, and moving along with true choral voice full of profound thought, and instinct with the spirit of harmony."—Morning Post.

"The writers have many strange and beautiful fancies touching the natural and the supernatural, and many of them they embody in forms of idealised grace."—Standard.

"A very taking volume of verse, because it is so sweet and musical; the verse is admirable, and one poem, 'The Holy Heart,' is almost beyond praise."—Graphic.

"Aurora" is not by any means a common-place book; and its authors write with power to claim a respectful hearing."—Examiner.

"The poems generally show great powers of condensation. If they are by different authors—a husband and wife perhaps—they exhibit wonderful unanimity of spirit and style."—Scotsman.

Fcap. 8vo, 5s.

SONGS OF TWO WORLDS.

Third Series.

By a NEW WRITER.

"Not hawthorn blossom falls more softly than the exquisite cadence of these verses. The farewell the writer threatens cannot be permitted."—Examiner.

"We despair of doing justice to this choice volume. Every page would tempt to eulogize."—Nonconformist.

"'Evening' is a poem in which the source of inspiration is the sublimity to which thought is led by metaphysical problems. The train of thought has an appearance of genuine spontaneity."—Athenaeum.

"More perfect in execution than either of its predecessors. The pure lyrics are sweeter and richer. Nothing could be much finer than the interpretation of the 'Legend of Actaeon.' Every stanza is a little poem in itself, and yet part of a perfect whole."—Spectator.

SECOND EDITION of UNTRODDEN SPAIN, and her BLACK

COUNTRY. Being Sketches of the Life and Character of the Spaniard of the Interior. By HUGH JAMES ROSE, M.A., of Oriel College, Oxford; Chaplain to the English, French, and German Mining Companies of Linares; and formerly Acting Chaplain to Her Majesty's Forces at Dover Garrison. In 2 vols. 8vo, price 30s.

The SATURDAY REVIEW says:—"His title of 'Untrodden Spain' is no misnomer. He leads us into scenes and among classes of Spaniards where few English writers have preceded him.....We can only recommend our readers to get it and search for themselves. Those who are most intimately acquainted with Spain will best appreciate its varied excellences."

The SPECTATOR says:—"The author's kindliness is as conspicuous as his closeness of observation and fairness of judgment; his sympathy with the people inspires his pen as happily as does his artistic appreciation of the country; and both have combined in the production of a work of striking novelty and sterling value."

The STANDARD says:—"It is fresh, life-like, and chatty, and is written by a man who is accustomed to look below the surface of things."

The ATHENÆUM says:—"We regret that we cannot make further extracts, for 'Untrodden Spain' is by far the best book upon Spanish peasant life that we have ever met with."

The LITERARY CHURCHMAN says:—"Seldom has a book of travel come before us which has so taken our fancy in reading, and left behind it, when the reading was over, so distinct an impression.....We must reluctantly close our review of these delightful volumes, leaving the major part of them unnoticed. But we have quoted sufficient to show our readers how well the author has used his opportunities."

The NONCONFORMIST says:—"This book forms most interesting reading. It is the result of careful observation, it communicates many facts, it is written in a polished yet lively style, and will thus, perhaps, remain for some time the best reference-book about rural Spain."

The FIELD says:—"An amount of really valuable information respecting the lower classes of Spaniards, their daily life and conversation, and ways of looking at things, such as few writers have given us."

The JOHN BULL says:—"We have rarely been able to recommend a book more cordially. It has not a dull page.Deserves to be a great success."
